Conference Coordinators and State Homeschool Organization Leaders,

I would like to commend Chap Bettis to you as a speaker or workshop presenter for your upcoming conferences. Chap was the Keynote Speaker at our 2012 RIGHT homeschool conference, as well as, a breakout session speaker at our 2015 conference. Chap is an excellent interactive speaker with compelling information to share with Christian parents. Chap has been refining his presentations on the Power of Apologetics and Worldview and has just recently come out with a book about raising children to follow Christ, "The Disciple-Making Parent: A Comprehensive Guidebook for Raising Your Children to Love and Follow Jesus Christ". I have read most of his preliminary booklets and am excited to read the final compilation.
